

Hospital Fees for Out-of-Country Visitors

If you are not a Canadian resident with a valid health card, you will have to pay for your care.

- Certain services, procedures, and medications can cost more.
- There is also a fee if you need to access your health record. Fees vary.
- All fees can change at any time.

If you do not understand the fees for your care, call Nova Scotia Health's Finance Department:

- › Phone (toll-free): 1-844-783-7416

Emergency Health Services (EHS)

- You will have to pay for all fees if you need EHS ambulance services.
- If you have questions about these fees, call the EHS billing office:
 - › Phone (toll-free): 1-888-280-8884

Insurance

- It is important to understand what your private insurance does and does not cover (pay for).
- Call your insurance company to find out how much is covered. Because of privacy laws, hospital staff cannot do this for you. It is your responsibility.
- When you are first admitted to the hospital, give hospital staff all of the details of what is covered by your insurance.
- Your insurance company must give proof of a guarantee of payment before Nova Scotia Health will submit (put in) any claim.
- You must pay for any amounts not paid by your insurance, including cases where your insurance company denies (rejects) a claim. You can pay by cash, cheque, debit, Visa, Mastercard®, or American Express® (certain locations only).

You can also pay online by visiting:
› <https://payments.nshealth.ca/>

Hospital stays

- If you have to stay in the hospital, you will be charged a daily fee. Part of this fee includes:

- › The fees above do not include doctor's fees (you will be billed directly by the doctor).

Important: For outpatient services, Nova Scotia Health does not send the bill to your insurance company for you. You have to pay your bill for outpatient services before you leave the hospital.

If you are an international student and have health insurance through your college or university, you do not have to pay.

Other care options

If you have health care questions, or you need to talk with a health care provider and it is not an emergency, some options are:

811

- 811 is a phone line where you can talk with a registered nurse about your health care questions. They offer services in over 125 languages, including Farsi, Cantonese, French, Chinese, and Arabic.
 - › To call, dial 8-1-1. You can call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Clinics

- Community Pharmacy Primary Care Clinics
 - › You can get some primary care services at these clinics. To see clinic locations and to book an appointment, visit:
 - › <https://pans.ns.ca/CPGCC>
- Other primary care clinics
 - › To find other primary care clinics, do an online search for: “primary care clinic” plus “the city, town or area that you are in.”
